St. James's, July 17.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to the Lord Viſcount Weymouth, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber aſſembled.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

ANimated with the warmeſt Sentiments of Duty and Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, we your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common-Council of the City of Exeter, beg Leave, in this Time of public Alarm, to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſteady and moſt zealous Support in the Proſecution of the preſent War, againſt the United Strength of the Houſe of Bourbon. We are fully ſenſible of your Majeſty's pacific Diſpoſition towards thoſe Powers, who not only unprovoked, but regardleſs of the repeated Inſtances of your Majeſty's Friendſhip and Moderation, have voluntarily entered into the Conteſt ſubſiſting with your Majeſty's revolted Subjects in America, in Breach of public Faith, and with a View only of gratifying their own ambitious Deſigns.

Amidſt the Difficulties, which ſurround us, we cannot, however, but reflect with the higheſt Satisfaction on the Succeſs which attended the Britiſh Arms in former Times, when the Spirit of the Nation was called forth and fully exerted. The ſame Spirit ſtill exiſts; and relying on the Juſtice of our Cauſe, we truſt that, under the Divine Providence, your Majeſty will be enabled, by the vigorous Efforts of your Subjects, and the diſtinguiſhed Valour and Ability of your Majeſty's Forces, to humiliate the Pride, and fruſtrate the unjuſt Attempts of your Enemies; and to convince them of the Danger of inſulting the Honour of your Majeſty's Crown, and invading the Rights of Great Britain.

On our Part we ſhall be always ready to ſtand forth in the Defence of our Country, and for the Preſervation of our happy Conſtitution; and moſt earneſtly pray, that your Majeſty may long continue the Guardian and Protector of a Free, Brave and United People.

Given under our Common Seal the Thirteenth Day of July, 1779.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and dutiful Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and Heritors of the County of Stirling.

WE, your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and Heritors of the County of Stirling, think it our Duty in the preſent important Criſis of publick Affairs, to expreſs our firm Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family, and Government, and our Gratitude for the Happineſs we have enjoyed ſince your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors. Convinced that your Majeſty's Conduct to Foreign States has been guided by the ſame Principles of Equity and Moderation that have been ſo conſpicuous in your Government at Home, it is with the higheſt Indignation and Reſentment we have ſeen thoſe ambitious Powers, who have ſo often diſturbed the Tranquility and menaced the Liberties of Europe, combined in the moſt hoſtile Meaſures againſt your Majeſty's Kingdoms; and juſtifying theſe Meaſures on Pretences the moſt frivolous and ill-founded. But as the unjuſt and aſpiring Views of the Princes of the Houſe of Bourbon have, on many former Occaſions, been checked and defeated by the ſpirited Exertions of the Britiſh Nation, we truſt, that through the Divine Bleſſing on your Councils and Arms, and ſupported by your own Magnanimity, and the Zeal and Affection of brave and generous Subjects, your Majeſty will be enabled to reſiſt and repel, and finally triumph over the united Efforts of France and Spain. Though in this Hour of Danger and Alarm, we cannot but expreſs our Regret, that a national Militia has not been extended to this Part of the united Kingdom; and that your faithful Subjects here have been precluded from that beſt and moſt conſtitutional Defence; we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that in our Sphere we ſhall contribute with Chearfulneſs to every Expence, and co-operate with Ardour in every Meaſure that may be judged moſt conducive to the Protection of your Kingdoms, and to the Maintenance of the Honour and Dignity of your Crown.

Subſcribed, in the Preſence and by Appointment of the Meeting, by the moſt Honourable the Marquis of Graham their Præſes, at Stirling, the Tenth Day of July, 1779.

GRAHAM.

AT Stirling, the Tenth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine Years, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Heretors, and Freeholders of the County of Stirling, aſſembled in the Town Hall, in Purſuance of a publick Intimation by the Sheriff, at Deſire of His Majeſty's Advocate, the moſt Honourable the Marquiſs of Graham in the Chair; and conſidering the Neceſſity of an immediate Supply of Seamen to man the Navy in the preſent Conjuncture of Publick Affairs; the Meeting reſolved to addreſs His Majeſty; and an Addreſs was framed, approved, and ſubſcribed by the Præſes, in Preſence and by Appointment of the Meeting accordingly, and ordered to be tranſmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Lawrance Dundas, in Abſence of the County Member, to be preſented to His Majeſty.

And the Meeting further reſolved, in order to ſhew ſhew their Zeal and Readineſs to contribute every Thing in their Power to the ſtrengthening the Hands of Government, by the procuring of Volunteers for the ſpeedy manning of the Navy, that they will raiſe by Subſcriptions ſuch a Sum as ſhall enable them to offer Bounties for that Purpoſe; and the Members preſent ſubſcribed liberally on a Paper of this Date; and in order that the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and others of the County, whoſe Buſineſs or Reſidence elſewhere has prevented their Attendance this Day, may have an Opportunity of ſubſcribing and contributing alſo, the Meeting reſolved, that the Præſes ſhall ſend circular Letters to them, requeſting their Subſcriptions; and that Mr. M'Killop, their Clerk, find proper Hands to ſend Subſcription Papers through the County, along with Lord Graham's Letters; and that the Money ſhall be paid in to the Clerk, and be iſſued by him according to the Directions of the following Gentlemen, who are hereby appointed a Committee, to the Effect following, viz. Sir James Dunbar, of Mochrum, Bart, William Morehead, Eſq; of Herberſhire, William Caddell, Eſq; of Banton, John Napier, Eſq; of Craigannal, and David Gourlay, Eſq; of Hepdarroch, or any Two of them, to apply the Money ſubſcribed in the Manner they ſhall find moſt conducive for that Purpoſe; and appointed Mr. Gourlay Conveener of the Committee, with Power alſo to him to call a General Meeting of the County upon this Buſineſs, when he or the Committee ſhall think fit; and ordained theſe Reſolutions to be publiſhed in the Edinburgh News-papers, and Extract to be tranſmitted to London, with the Addreſs (ſigned) Graham. Extracted by William M'Killop, Clerk.

The following Addreſs of the Maſter, Wardens, and Commonalty of the Society of Merchant-Venturers of the City of Briſtol, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Meſſ. Hart, Vaughan, and Jones, (attended by Sir James Laroche, Bart. and Richard Combe, Eſq;) being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly; and the Gentlemen who preſented it had the Honour of kiſſing His Majeſty's Hand.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

YOUR dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Maſter, Wardens, and Commonalty of the Society of Merchant-Venturers of the City of Briſtol, ever zealous for the Welfare of your Kingdoms, your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Family, and the Government, as by Law eſtabliſhed, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, at this Time of public Threatning, with our humble Addreſs.

And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that neither the ambitious Inſolence of the French, nor the inſidious Treachery of the Spaniard, ſhall diſmay us, but that with united Hearts we will ſtand firm in the Defence of all that is dear to us.

We do not forget the Chaſtiſement which the Bravery of Engliſhmen has often inflicted on both France and Spain; and we truſt, that under the Protection of that Providence which has ſo often and ſo eminently diſplayed itſelf in Favor of this Nation, we ſhall baffle the Deſigns and humble the Pride of thoſe faithleſs and inſulting Foes, our jealous Rivals; and to whom we are unconſcious that any juſt Cauſe has been given for their preſent hoſtile Deſigns.

Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, we ſhall uſe our utmoſt Endeavors to forward ſuch Plans of Operation as your Majeſty in your great Wiſdom ſhall deviſe, and with Cheerfulneſs commit our Cauſe to Him who ruleth over all.

Given under our Common Seal the 26th Day of June, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign, which God long continue.

Whitehall, July 17.

Yeſterday the following Addreſs was preſented to His Majeſty by Sir William Pepperell, Bart. being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

AT this important Period, when your Majeſty's Arms are engaged in reclaiming your revolted Subjects in America, and in repelling the combined and unprovoked Attempts of France and Spain, We, your Majeſty's Subjects, who from your Colonies have taken Refuge in Great Britain, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Hearts and Lives devoted to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, nd to offer our unfeigned Thanks for thoſe unparalleled Exertions which your Majeſty has been pleaſed to make, for the Relief and Protection of your faithful Colonial Subjects: — And, notwithſtanding your Majeſty's Arms have not been attended with all the Effect which thoſe Exertions promiſed, and from which Occaſion has been taken to raiſe an indiſcriminate Charge of Diſaffection in the Coloniſts; — we beg Leave, ſome of us from our own Knowledge, and others from the beſt Information, to aſſure your Majeſty, that the greater Number of your Subjects in the confederated Colonies, notwithſtanding every Art to ſeduce, every Device to intimidate, and a Variety of Oppreſſions to compel them to abjure their Sovereign, entertain the firmeſt Attachment and Allegiance to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government.—In Support of theſe Truths, we need not appeal to the Evidence of our own Sufferings; it is notorious, that we have ſacrificed all which the moſt loyal Subjects could forego, or the happieſt could poſſeſs: But with Confidence we appeal to the Struggles made againſt the Uſurpations of the Congreſs, by Counter Reſolves in very large Diſtricts of Country, and to the many unſucceſsful Attempts by Bodies of the Loyal in Arms, which have ſubjected them to all the Rigours of inflamed Reſentment; — we appeal to the Sufferings of Multitudes, who for their Loyalty have been ſubjected to Inſults, Fines, and Impriſonments, patiently enduring all, in the Expectation of that Period, which ſhall reſtore to them the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's Government; —we appeal to the Thouſands now ſerving in your Majeſty's Armies, and in Private Ships of War, the former exceeding in Number the Troops enliſted to oppoſe them; —finally, we make a melancholy Appeal to the many Families who have been baniſhed from their once peaceful Habitations; to the public Forfeiture of a long Liſt of Eſtates; and to the numerous Executions of our Fellow Citizens, who have ſealed their Loyalty with their Blood.—If any Colony or Diſtrict, when covered or poſſeſſed by your Majeſty's Troops, had been called upon to take Arms, and had refuſed; or if any Attempts had been made to form the Loyal as Militia, or otherwiſe, and it had been declined, we ſhould not on this

Occaſion

Occaſion have preſumed thus to addreſs your Majeſty: but if on the contrary, no general Meaſure to the above Effect was attempted, if Petitions from Bodies of your Majeſty's Subjects, who wiſhed to riſe in Aid of Government, have been neglected, and the Repreſentations of the moſt reſpectable Loyaliſts diſregarded, we aſſure ourſelves that the Equity and Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Mind will not admit of any Impreſſions injurious to the Honour and Loyalty of your faithful Subjects in thoſe Colonies.

Revering and firmly attached to the Britiſh Conſtitution, which it has been the Glory of your Majeſty's Family to ſtrengthen, and of your Reign to improve, we lament the Infatuation of ſuch of our Fellow-Subjects in America, who, acting upon different Principles, or deluded by their Leaders, have thrown aſide their juſt Allegiance, and caſt themſelves upon the Aſſiſtance of the ancient Enemy of their Country, Liberties, and Religion; an Alliance which may enſlave, but never can eſtabliſh the Happineſs of your Coloniſts.——Animated with theſe Sentiments, we ſupplicate the Supreme Diſpoſer of Events, to crown your Majeſty's Endeavours with a Succeſs proportioned to the Righteouſneſs of your Cauſe; to fruſtrate the ambitious Deſigns of your Enemies; and finally to reſtore to your Majeſty's Subjects in America, that mild Government, under which they long enjoyed ſo much Felicity.

A PROCLAMATION,

And We do hereby declare, That if any ſuch Maſters of Ships, Pilots, Mariners, Seamen, Shipwrights, and other Seafaring Men, (being Our Subjects) ſhall be taken in any Foreign Service by the Turks, Algerines, or any others, they ſhall not be reclaimed by Us as Subjects of Great Britain.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Thirtieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, in the Nineteenth Year of Our Reign.

GOD ſave the KING.

York-Building Company's Creditors.

IN the Process of ranking of the Creditors of the York-Building Company, pending in the Court of Session, the Lord Monboddo Ordinary has made the following Order:

"Of-new ordains the whole Creditors of the York Building "Company, who have not already produced their Interests, to "produce all their Claims, Rights, and Diligences, compe-"tent to them respectively, against the said Company or their "Estates, in the Hands of the Clerk to this Process, betwixt "and the First Day of August next; with Certification, that "the Interest of no Creditor will thereafter be received, with-"out Payment of an Amand of Forty Shillings Sterling; "and authorises and appoints the common Agent to the "ranking to make Publication and Intimation of this Order "to all concerned, by Advertisements in the London Gazette "and in the Edinburgh News-papers."

It is intreated that the Creditors, and the Agents for the Creditors, pay Obedience to this Order, by lodging their Grounds of Debt with Mr. Keith, Clerk to the Process of Ranking, or with Alexander Mackenzie, Clerk to His Majesty's Signet, Edinburgh, common Agent for carrying on the ranking; as, by many Creditors neglecting to produce their Grounds of Debt, the Progress of classing and ranking the several Creditors is greatly retarded; whereas, if the whole Vouchers and Grounds of Debt to be claimed on were produced, every Endeavour will be used to bring the ranking and classing of the different Debts to a Conclusion, whereby the Creditors may receive their several Dividends.
